

Classic Tour

A great way to learn about the captivating history of the Ricasoli family and their modern wine production philosophy

THE TOUR

The tour is divided into two parts; the history of the family and then the wine production and wine tasting. The Classic Tour begins directly at the castle ticket office. From the castle entrance, you will be taken through the gardens, private family church and Ricasoli Collection (small museum) by one of our expert guides. After the historical visit, you will then drive down to the wine shop where the tour continues through our state-of-the-art wine-making facilities. The tour ends in a private room with a guided wine tasting of 3 wines.
